If premium charges apply to the specific service offerings you have selected, the charges, payment interval and other payment related information associated with the selected service offerings will be disclosed to you at the time you register for the Services and choose your desired service offerings. If you select services for which premium charges apply, you will be required to provide us with your Google/Apple ID and password, bank, debit card, credit card or Unified Payments Interface (“UPI”) account information to enable Safestone to automatically (either monthly, annually or at other agreed upon intervals) charge your Apple/Google account, bank, debit card, credit card or UPI account the premium charges, if any, associated with the specific services you have selected. Other charges may apply when accessing the Services through one of our Partners. If Safestone decides to cancel a service offering for which you have prepaid, unless such cancellation is as a result of your breach of these Terms of Use, Safestone shall, in its sole discretion, refund the portion of the services which is unused or credit your account for the use of other service offerings. However, no prepaid charges shall be refundable to you should you terminate or cancel your account with Safestone. By registering for the Services and agreeing to these Terms of Use, you hereby authorize Safestone to charge your Apple/Google account, bank, debit card, credit card or UPI account on file with us for the premium charges associated with the service offerings you have selected and at the times and intervals agreed to when you selected such service offerings. Should you fail to do so, Safestone shall have the right to immediately terminate or cancel your access to the Services without notice to you and shall have no liability to you or any third party for doing so. Safestone is committed to making all rates and charges visible and predictable to you.
